

For the best family Easter Weekend, head up to the mountains!

Beaupré, March 15, 2016 - Stoneham and Mont-Sainte-Anne literally offer the best formula for Easter weekend. They will satisfy all families with plenty of free and easy-access activities! In addition, the mountains certainly offer the best snow conditions in the East as the Québec City area has been among the luckiest this winter with the snowfall and weather.

MONT-SAINTE-ANNE

The resort is well-known by families for its Easter weekend activities. The 2016 edition will bring its traditional Easter Egg Scavenger Hunts and new this season, a do-it-yourself workshop of the precious eggs. The Spring Madness Festival also kicks-off that weekend with: BBQs, live shows at Saturdays' Après-ski and DJ sets, inflatable game, free hot tub access, and more. It starts on Saturday March 26 at 3pm, with the band "Le Comité", at 3pm on the outdoor stage at the base of the mountain. If you can't make it for Easter Weekend, remember that the festival is going on for 4 weekends of craziness, ending on closing day, April 24.

STONEHAM

On Saturday and Sunday, foodies will head to Stoneham Mountain Resort and get the copious and delicious Breakfast Buffet Brunch at the Feu-Follet resto [from 7am to 2pm - view of the mountain - including maple taffy on snow, served on the terrace of the restaurant]. Then, families could assault the mountain's glades to find Easter eggs hidden all around. Reserve your place for breakfast at 1.800.463.6888 #531.
