ITINERARIES

Route de la Nouvelle-France

La Route de la Nouvelle-France

1 877 611-6145 cotedebeaupre.com

Route de la Nouvelle-France is one of North America's oldest roads. Originally plotted by Monseigneur François de Laval, this road was long used by farmers to bring their produce to the Québec City market. Travel back through time as this narrow road winds past cultural, historical and agricultural attractions.

Le circuit Archéo-Vision

418 827-4608 info@lagrandeferme.qc.ca

From the moment you set foot in the municipality of Saint-Joachim, you will discover the ARCHÉO-VISION route. The interpretation signs found throughout the village reveal all the area's archaeological wealth. Regular updates made by archaeologists over the years have allowed us to uncover our ancestors' lifestyles. The starting point of this 10-kilometer route takes place at the main sign, located on the Église Street, next to the Saint-Joachim city hall. This itinerary can be done by foot, by bike or by car, from end of April to end of October.

Le Circuit des Créateurs de la Côte-de-Beaupré

info@circuitdescreateurs-cdb.com
circuitdescreateurs-cdb.com

Art and culture lovers can follow this circuit to meet creators and artisans in their studio and tour exhibitions or interpretation sites. This artistic and cultural excursion is an opportunity to meet professional contemporary artists and traditional craftpersons, as well as visit multiple museums (including an ecomuseum), interpretive centres, art galleries and partner exhibition sites. This circuit breathes new life into the region's cultural and tourist attractions.

Québec, région gourmande

quebecregiongourmande.com

Côte-de-Beaupré is well known for the diversity and quality of its agricultural products and its gastronomy. Chefs and local farmers are offering you stunning and various food products well as agrotourist experience. Discover the aromas and typical tastes of the Côte-de-Beaupré region, proud partner of Québec, région gourmande.

Le Train de Charlevoix

418 240-4124 / 1 844 737-328
traindecharlevoix.com

The Train de Charlevoix criss-crosses the St. Lawrence River's shore revealing otherwise inaccessible roads. Traveling between Québec City and La Malbaie over more than 125 km, the train stops in 7 towns and coastal villages. Whether it is for a short getaway with the kids or for a few romantic days, there are several scenarios to choose from. Friendly service: possibility to sample the terroir products from the appetizers and cocktails menu.

La Véloroute Marie-Hélène-Prémont

1 877 611-6145 cotedebeaupre.com

Country fun in the heart of the first villages in French North America, on one of the oldest roads in Québec: Route de la Nouvelle-France (New France Route). Discover 7 rural municipalities and close to 40 tourist attractions, as well as landscapes, history and heritage you will marvel at. The path connects to 84 miles of mountain biking trails at Mont-Sainte-Anne.

Experience Côte-de-Beaupré - A Heritage Adventure

1 877 611-6145 info@cotedebeaupre.com

"Oh! What beautiful meadows!" These words, pronounced by sailors admiring the coast, are believed to have given Côte-de-Beaupré its name at the dawn of the 17th century. The region's breathtaking pastures are the cradle of Quebec's agriculture. Download the itineraries before and drive around without Internet connexion.

FOOD SERVICES

A close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph of a gourmet dish. The main focus is a stack of two pieces of meat, possibly lamb chops, topped with a slice of melted cheese and a golden-brown fried shallot. The dish is garnished with a sprig of rosemary. To the left, there is a slice of toasted bread, a roasted orange bell pepper, and a piece of asparagus. The entire dish is served on a white plate with a pool of dark sauce. In the background, a glass of red wine and another glass are visible, slightly out of focus, against a bokeh background of warm, colorful lights.
